

Dear Sir/Madam,

I find it very difficult to understand how you can allow Sinclair Broadcasting to force its stations to air an avowedly political ad in the guise of news. I ask that you not only prevent this abuse of power but consider revoking their license and changing your policies so that this never happens again.

Mark Wolcott